

111TH CONGRESS

1ST SESSION I. B. 0001

To protect the American Citizen's right to unrestricted access to the Internet and to insure that the Web will not be used in any psychological operations against of "for" the American people by any Government entity, person, or any second to seventh generation of entity or person in relationship to any representative of any Government, anywhere, anytime.

IN MY HOUSE SITTING ON MY COUCH

October 1, 2009

Mr. ART (for himself, of Arizona)

Introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committees on Ways and Means, Education and Labor, Oversight and Government Reform, and the Budget, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the Committee concerned

A BILL

To make sure we don't fu*k with the American People.

The internet, a form of essential communication which is intertwined within the lives of each and every American will not be interfered with.

Ever.

Ok, that's it... What is that one page?

Um, Any questions?
